

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EVIDENCE OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

International students seeking admission to The Seattle School of Theology & Psychology and eligibility for F-1 student status must submit the Evidence of Financial Support form, and all checklist items outlined below. The Form I-20 will be issued after admission to The Seattle School is granted. Please respond clearly and completely to each of the following questions.

Application Checklist

- Complete the International Student Evidence of Financial Support form.
- Identify a financial sponsor and have them complete, sign, and date the sponsor's section of this form (sponsor's signature must be original).
- Request that your financial sponsor submit an official copy of his or her bank statements to verify funds available.
- Include a photocopy of student's passport identification pages with application.

Please submit this completed form to The Seattle School by mail, fax, or email evidence of financial support

U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that The Seattle School of Theology & Psychology verify the financial resources of all international students. To be eligible for the F-1 student visa status, applicants must work with their financial sponsor to demonstrate sufficient financial resources that meet or exceed the estimated educational and living expenses. Please note the estimated costs listed on this form are for one academic year (three trimesters). Adequate documented financial support is required for admission decisions and issuance of the Form I-20.

bank verification

In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and the funds must be described in U.S. dollars. All documents must be less than six months old. Please clearly label the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address below.

Acceptable Bank Statements:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. (The bank statement should be sent to The Seattle School directly from the bank in a sealed envelope.) It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.
- An official letter of guarantee from your government or agency indicating your scholarship amount in U.S. dollars. The letter should be signed and dated and the date of the letter must not be more than one year old.

Not Acceptable Bank Statements:

- Photocopies or faxes of bank letters or bank statements.
- A bank letter indicating "good" customer or "adequate funds," and not indicating a current total account balance.
