

The Seattle School Student Leadership Application 2022-2023

Application Process:

1. Fill out this application and submit it to Becca Shirley, Manager of Student Life Programs (rshirley@theseattleschool.edu) by Monday, June 20.
2. Becca will arrange a time to meet with you, Paul Steinke and others who are applying to explore your interest and so you can hear more about student leadership. Whether you are in a low residency or on campus cohort, local to Seattle or living elsewhere, there is a place for you on student leadership. We will continue to explore how our teams might grow and take shape as we hold these interviews and hear what desires and energies people have to create together.
3. After meeting with Becca and Paul, you will be invited to meet with the facilitator of any realm of Student Leadership in which you are interested.

Those invited to participate on Student Leadership will begin serving by participating in the Student Leadership Retreat July 8-10, 2022..

---

Requirements for all those within Student Leadership for the 2022-23 academic year:

- Commitment to Student Leadership for a 12 month term
- Attend all Seattle School Student Leadership meetings (by Zoom or in person):
  - (2) two-hour Student Leadership meetings each month on Wednesday nights from 6:00-8:00pm (Dinner included)
  - (2) two-hour realm meetings each month on Wednesday nights from 6:00-8:00pm
  - Student Leadership retreat in July 2022
  - Community Weekend, Christmas Party, Spring Banquet and Graduates' Breakfast
- Assume responsibility for your part in leading and creating as a community
- In addition to the meetings above, invest an average of 2 hours per week toward student leadership at The Seattle School in predetermined area of passion and other areas of need
- Seek to be one who loves well

As a "thank you" for service to The Seattle School community, all student leaders will receive a small stipend for their year of commitment

---

*Thank you so much for your interest in The Seattle School Student Leadership!
Please answer the following questions in the space provided or on a separate page if you want more room. This application will only be read by the Student Leadership Quad, Becca Shirley, and Paul Steinke. Please do not answer with what you think we want to hear but rather with who you are and what is helpful to you to articulate as you consider this position.*

Name:

Degree Program:

Year in School:

Modality (low-residency or on campus) and Location (where you live):

Applying for (underline all that apply): Student Council / Sacred Space / Anamchara / Mosaic

1. What are you passionate about? How have you embodied these passions in the past?

2. Read the Student Leadership portion of The Seattle School website: <https://theseattleschool.edu/students/student-life/>, as well as the section found there on your realm of interest. How do you imagine your passions being embodied within the context of the realm(s) for which you are applying?

3. Often as student leaders, we must work toward goals/needs/objectives about which we are not passionate. Describe how you might respond to such a challenge?

4. What needs do you see within The Seattle School, Belltown, or your own neighborhood community that you would like to move toward? How would you do so?

5. Anything else you'd like us to know about you?